

Breathlessness

If breathlessness persists consider combination of opiate and midazolam

NB The use of the drugs in this protocol and their routes of administration are outside their product licenses but their use is accepted best clinical practice by the local consultants in palliative medicine. Medical staff are allowed by law to prescribe these drugs at their own discretion